The Old Course at St Andrews, with its rich history dating back to the 15th century, has become a pilgrimage site for golfers worldwide. This hole-by-hole guide will take you through each of the 18 holes, offering insights, strategic tips, and a glimpse into what makes this legendary links course so unique.

Understanding the St Andrews Old Course

Before diving into the hole-by-hole journey, it's worth noting what sets the Old Course apart from other championship courses. Situated on the east coast of Scotland, the course is a classic links layout characterized by undulating fairways, deep bunkers, and large double greens shared by adjacent holes. The famous Swilcan Bridge and the Road Hole bunker are just a couple of the landmarks that define the Old Course experience.

Playing the Old Course requires not just power but strategy, creativity, and patience. Weather conditions, especially the wind coming off the North Sea, can dramatically affect play, making knowledge of each hole's quirks invaluable.

St Andrews Old Course Hole by Hole Guide

Hole 1: Burn

The opening hole at St Andrews is a relatively short par-4, measuring about 376 yards. While it seems straightforward, the presence of the "Burn" - a small stream running near the fairway - demands accuracy off the tee. A well-placed drive down the left-center of the fairway avoids the burn and sets up a mid-iron approach to a large green. The green slopes from back to front, so avoid going long to prevent tricky downhill putts.

Hole 2: Dyke

At 453 yards, the second hole is a challenging par-4 that requires a precise tee shot to avoid the massive "Principal's Nose" bunker on the right. The fairway slopes towards the right, so a fade can be advantageous. The approach shot is uphill to a green protected by bunkers in front that can catch any short balls. Club selection is key here, as the green can be quite undulating.

Hole 3: Cartgate (Out)

This hole is a longer par-4, around 397 yards, nicknamed after the Cartgate bunker guarding the left side. The tee shot needs to avoid this deep hazard, encouraging a drive towards the safer right side of the fairway. The approach shot is tricky because of the large double green shared with the 15th hole, with subtle breaks that challenge even the best putters.

Hole 4: Ginger Beer

Hole 4 is a classic short par-4, measuring just 264 yards, and often tempting players to go for the green off the tee. However, the green is heavily protected by bunkers, including the notorious “Ginger Beer” bunker on the right. For most, a controlled tee shot to the fairway followed by a wedge approach is the smarter play to avoid trouble.

Hole 5: Hole O’Cross (Out)

At 568 yards, this par-5 is one of the longest on the front nine. The fairway is wide but features several deep bunkers on both sides, requiring careful navigation. The green is large and slightly elevated, guarded by deep bunkers. Many players aim to reach the green in two, but laying up short and to the left is often the safer strategy.

Hole 6: Heathery (Out)

This par-4, measuring 412 yards, is framed by heather rough on the left and several bunkers on the right. The hole doglegs slightly right, inviting a draw off the tee. The approach is to a large green that slopes significantly from back to front, so club selection and distance control are critical to avoid three-putting.

Hole 7: High (Out)

A relatively short par-4 at 371 yards, the seventh hole challenges players with an elevated tee shot and a green protected by deep bunkers. The fairway slopes from left to right, meaning the ball can roll into trouble if not placed correctly. The green’s subtle breaks require careful reading for successful putting.

Hole 8: Short (Out)

One of the most iconic holes at St Andrews, the eighth is a par-3 playing just 175 yards. The tee shot requires precision, as the green is surrounded by deep bunkers, including the infamous “Short bunker.” Wind conditions can make club selection tricky here. The green slopes severely from back to front, so landing short can lead to difficult up-and-downs.

Hole 9: End (Out)

The front nine closes with a long par-4 of 423 yards. The fairway is generous, but the approach shot is complicated by the large, undulating green shared with the 17th hole. Bunkers guard the front and left sides, demanding an accurate iron shot. The green's subtle breaks make putting a test of skill.

Hole 10: Bobby Jones (In)

The back nine begins with a challenging par-4 of 386 yards. The tee shot must avoid the deep "Bobby Jones" bunker on the right. The fairway slopes gently, and the approach is uphill to a green protected by bunkers on both sides. With its name honoring the legendary golfer, this hole carries a sense of history and challenge.

Hole 11: High (In)

A long par-3 measuring 174 yards, the 11th is a demanding hole with a green guarded by deep bunkers on all sides. The prevailing wind often affects this hole, making club choice difficult. Precision is paramount, as any miss can leave a challenging bunker shot or a tricky chip.

Hole 12: Heathery (In)

At 348 yards, the 12th is a short par-4 that tempts players to drive the green. However, the "Heathery" rough and deep bunkers protect the putting surface. A conservative tee shot followed by a precise approach is the safer route, especially when the wind is strong.

Hole 13: Hole O'Cross (In)

Playing 465 yards, this par-5 mirrors its front nine counterpart but with slightly different bunker placements. The fairway is wide but guarded by the "Hole O'Cross" bunker on the left. Many players attempt to reach the green in two, but the approach is tricky due to the green's undulations and surrounding bunkers.

Hole 14: Long (In)

A lengthy par-5 measuring 618 yards, the 14th demands distance and accuracy. The fairway is wide but features several deep bunkers, including "Long Bunker" on the left. Most golfers lay up short of the green to avoid the well-placed hazards, then rely on a precise wedge shot to set up a birdie opportunity.

Hole 15: Cartgate (In)

This par-4 of 423 yards shares its green with the third hole, making it a unique challenge. The “Cartgate” bunker guards the left side, and the fairway slopes toward it. The approach shot requires careful club selection to handle the large, undulating green.

Hole 16: Corner of the Dyke (In)

Hole 17: Road Hole

Perhaps the most famous hole on the Old Course and one of the most challenging par-4s in golf, the 17th is a true test of nerve and skill. Measuring 495 yards, the tee shot must avoid the deep “Road Hole” bunker on the right and the out-of-bounds road and wall behind it. The approach requires a blind shot over the corner of a stone wall onto a narrow green that slopes severely. Many players consider this hole the ultimate challenge in links golf.

Hole 18: Tom Morris

The finishing hole at St Andrews is a memorable par-4 of 357 yards. The iconic “Swilcan Bridge” divides the fairway early on, and players often feel the weight of history as they cross it. The green is large but guarded by the “Hell Bunker” on the left and other deep bunkers. The closing hole combines strategic shot-making with a touch of drama, perfect for ending a round at the Home of Golf.

Hole-by-Hole Analysis of St Andrews Old Course

Hole 1 - The Burn

The opening hole, a par 4 measuring around 376 yards, sets the tone for the round. The tee shot must navigate the strategically placed bunkers and the infamous "Burn" (a small stream) that crosses the fairway approximately 100 yards from the tee. Precision off the tee is vital to avoid hazards and secure a comfortable approach to the green, which is generous but slopes subtly from back to front.

Hole 2 - The Dyke

A short par 4, approximately 352 yards, the second hole demands accurate tee shots to avoid the out-of-bounds area along the left and the strategically placed bunkers on the right. The approach shot is critical, as the green is shallow and guarded by deep bunkers, requiring finesse and careful club selection.

Hole 3 - Cartgate (Out)

This par 4, measuring about 397 yards, is named after the Cartgate bunker, one of the largest on the course. The tee shot is challenging due to the narrow fairway and the presence of the Cartgate bunker on the right side. Players must decide whether to play safe to the left or risk a more aggressive line. The green slopes from front to back and is protected by deep bunkers, demanding precise iron play.

Hole 4 - The Railway

A straightforward par 4 of 480 yards, the fourth hole is one of the longest on the front nine. The challenge lies in its length and the positioning of the large railway bunker that guards the left side of the fairway. Modern players often favor a long, accurate drive to set up a manageable approach shot.

Hole 5 - The Hole

This par 5, approximately 568 yards, offers birdie opportunities but requires strategic shot placement. The fairway is broad but flanked by bunkers that come into play for errant tee shots. The green is relatively flat, encouraging aggressive approaches, but the surrounding bunkers punish miscalculations.

Hole 6 - Heathery (Out)

A demanding par 4 of 412 yards, the sixth hole is characterized by undulating terrain and a green protected by the notorious "Heathery" bunker on the right. The strategic element lies in the positioning of the tee shot to allow the best angle into the green.

This short par 3, measuring just 174 yards, is deceptively difficult. The elevated tee offers a panoramic view, but swirling coastal winds can complicate club selection. The green is large but slopes severely, requiring precise putting.

Hole 8 - Short (Out)

Another par 4, approximately 370 yards, the eighth hole demands accuracy off the tee to avoid bunkers on both sides of the fairway. The green slopes from back to front and is guarded by deep bunkers that challenge approach shots.

Hole 9 - End (Out)

The ninth hole is a par 4 of 352 yards and is considered one of the most strategic holes on the front nine. The famous "End Bunker" lies in wait on the right side of the fairway, forcing players to carefully select their tee shot placement.

Hole 10 - Bobby Jones (In)

Named after the legendary golfer, the tenth hole is a long par 4 of 495 yards. The tee shot requires length and accuracy, with the fairway sloping from left to right. The green is protected by deep bunkers, demanding confident approach shots.

Hole 11 - High (In)

A par 3 of 174 yards, the eleventh hole requires a precise tee shot to a green that slopes severely from back to front. The hole's challenge is compounded by wind conditions and the positioning of bunkers around the green.

Hole 12 - Heathery (In)

This par 4 stretches to about 348 yards and features a narrow fairway flanked by deep bunkers. The green is relatively small and well-protected, requiring careful iron play.

Hole 13 - Hole O'Cross (In)

At 465 yards, this par 5 is one of the longest holes on the course. The fairway is wide but guarded by strategically placed bunkers. The green is large, offering birdie chances but punishing inaccurate approaches.

Hole 14 - Long (In)

A testing par 4, roughly 453 yards, the fourteenth demands a long and accurate tee shot. The second shot often plays uphill to a green protected by bunkers, requiring a precise approach.

Hole 15 - Cartgate (In)

This par 5, about 500 yards, is named for the large Cartgate bunker that guards the fairway. The hole offers risk-reward opportunities for long hitters but penalizes errant shots.

Hole 16 - Corner of the Dyke (In)

A challenging par 4 of 423 yards, the sixteenth hole's name reflects the strategic corner bunker that influences tee shot placement. Precision is key to setting up a manageable approach.

Hole 17 - Road (In)

Arguably the most famous hole on the Old Course, the seventeenth hole is a par 4 measuring 495 yards. The tee shot requires a blind drive over the corner of the Old Course Hotel, while the approach shot must navigate the infamous Road Hole bunker and a road that borders the green. This hole epitomizes the blend of risk and strategy that defines St Andrews.

Hole 18 - Tom Morris

The final hole, a par 4 of 356 yards, is named after the legendary golfer Old Tom Morris. The hole is known for the iconic Swilcan Bridge that players cross on their way to the green. The green is large but slopes and is guarded by bunkers, providing a fittingly dramatic finish to the round.

Strategic Considerations and Course Features

The St Andrews Old Course is less about raw power and more about tactical shot-making. Players must carefully navigate natural hazards, variable wind conditions, and unique course features such as double greens and shared fairways. The interplay between the expansive bunkers and the undulating terrain demands a nuanced understanding of the course.

Additionally, the Old Course's shared fairways—where players on different holes may tee off or approach simultaneously—add a layer of complexity and require awareness and etiquette. The course's subtle topography and prevailing coastal winds also make club selection and shot shape critical components for success.

Why a Hole-by-Hole Guide Matters

For both first-time visitors and seasoned professionals, a detailed hole-by-hole guide is invaluable. It allows players to prepare mentally and strategically for each unique challenge, improving shot selection and course management.
