The prophet Jonah's life was interrupted by a clear call of God that made him mad enough and scared enough to run in the completely opposite direction. Yet it wasn't really an interruption. It was an opportunity for Jonah to be involved in something the likes of which the Old Testament world had never seen: national revival in a Gentile country. What could have felt any better than being directly in the center of God's will? jonah bible study priscilla shirer: Scattered, Smothered, and Yet Covered By the Grace of God Lisa J. Heyer, 2023-11-28 This story of Scattered, Smothered, and Yet Covered by the Grace of God tells the unknown, the unbelievable, and the hurt and heartache that scattered my life in 2010 with my son's dive into addiction. His addictions from pot to pills would scatter and smother me for the next eight-plus years. This isn't only a raw look into addiction and the destruction it causes, but more importantly, it is a look into a story of God's love, hope, mercy, and grace that covered me and my son during these years in addition to being covered by friendships and prayers when we couldn't cover ourselves. I learned in 2019-2020 while writing this story that there is an obvious thread woven within this story—that is, God was there in every detail along the way. I was scattered into pieces, broken beyond what I could have imagined, smothered to the point of true breathlessness, and yet covered by the grace of God each and every day. But we have this treasure in jars of clay to show that this all surpassing power is from God and not from us. We are hard pressed on every side, but not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed. We always carry around in our body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body. For we who are alive are always being given over to death for Jesus sake, so that his life may also be revealed in our mortal body. So then, death is at work in us, but life is at work in you. I am thankful, Lord, for the refining and redemption lived within this story. I have been covered by the grace of God!

In this very personal account of opportunities lost and lessons learned, popular conference speaker and author Priscilla Shirer shows how to embrace the amazing freedom and fulfillment that comes from going with God, even when He's going against your grain. Las interrupciones son molestas y a veces exasperantes; pero aun así, diseñan los mejores planes que Dios tiene para tu vida. Aquellos que al fin de cuentas se diseñaron para ti, y que a menudo se oponen a los tuyos. Dios interrumpió la vida del profeta Jonás con un llamado que le requirió un cambio de vida total. Jonás se aterrorizó tanto que salió corriendo en dirección opuesta. Sin embargo, lo que aparentemente para él era una interrupción innecesaria e inservible, se transformó en una oportunidad para que fuera parte de algo que, en el mundo del Antiguo Testamento, jamás había sucedido antes. Esta interrupción fue realmente una intervención divina y tuvo más aventuras y posibilidades de las que él nunca podría haberse imaginado. Nosotros, tal como Jonás, solemos huir de las interrupciones. Cuando los grandes dolores y los pequeños problemas nos causan tropiezos en los planes y las metas que hemos pensado cuidadosamente, nosotros también nos encaminamos en la dirección opuesta. Quién sabe qué nos perderíamos al huir de lo que muy bien podría ser el medio que Dios emplea para redirigirnos hacia el resultado más grandioso de nuestra vida. Jonás puede contarnos uno o dos relatos, y tú también. De igual manera, Priscilla Shirer, la popular conferencista y escritora, también puede compartir desde una perspectiva estrechamente personal aquellas oportunidades perdidas y las lecciones aprendidas; y la asombrosa libertad y la satisfacción que provienen de andar con Dios aún cuando Él está yendo en el sentido contrario al tuyo.

jonah bible study priscilla shirer: Cruising with Jonah Clarence Talley, 2014-12-30 Cruising with Jonah is about a forgiving God who is concerned about a wayward nation. To address His concern, God selected Jonah and sent him forth. However, Jonah decided to take a cruise. Not to be out done, God commanded a great fish, from the deep, to serve as an incubator while the prophet reflected on his helpless condition. Cruising with Jonah highlights a prophet who not only abandons his responsibilities by running from his divine commission, but also harbors resentment when the Lord acts graciously toward those who repented and found their way back to Him. What made Jonah, a man of God, run from God? What makes anyone run from God? An even better inquiry would be this: Can anyone truly run away from the very presence of a God who is omnipresent who is everywhere at the same time? Like all who try, Jonah had his reasons reasons we will examine as we cruise with him and the Lord on a voyage of hope.
