Baumgarten provides readers with a brief history of the development of Advent in the Christian calendar, as well as detailed explanations of the various Christian symbols that can be used during the season. Somehow our days become filled with busyness, guilt, anxiety, parties, activities, concerts, and entertainment, often leaving little to no time to focus on the true meaning of Christmas. By faithfully doing this Advent study, you are changing that rhythm. It can be hard to remember the reason we are celebrating the Christmas season when we do not intentionally create margin in our days to slow down and soak in the Word of God. This is a call to simply slow down and make room for Christ this Christmas. I pray this study helps you do exactly that. Advent challenges us to truly shift our focus from the things of this world, to Jesus.
